Appendix B: Code of Conduct

1. Objective

The objective of the code is to enhance:

- mutual trust, respect and tolerance between members as a group and with Councillors and Council staff
- the credibility and accountability of the Council within its communities.

The following is the standard of behaviour that is expected from members of Wellington City Council reference and advisory groups.

2. Relationships with others

Members will conduct their dealings with each other, and elected members, in ways that:

- are open, honest and maintain integrity.
- focus on issues rather than personalities.
- avoid aggressive, offensive and abusive conduct.
- maintain confidence in their group.

3. Relationships with Council staff

The effective performance of the group also requires a high level of cooperation and mutual respect between members and Council staff. To ensure this is maintained, members will:

- treat all employees with courtesy and respect (including the avoidance of aggressive, offensive or abusive conduct towards employees).
- observe any guidelines that the Chief Executive puts in place regarding contact with employees.
- not do anything which compromises, or could be seen as compromising, the impartiality of an employee.
- avoid publicly criticising any employee in any way, but especially in ways that reflect on the competence and integrity of the employee.
- raise concerns about employees only with the Chair of the group, who will then decide whether to raise the issue with an appropriate senior Council officer.
- not seek to improperly influence staff in the normal undertaking of their duties.

4. Contact with the media.

Groups may have the opportunity to input into a number of different initiatives and for consistency, it is important that a single point of contact is established to respond to any media enquiries.

- All media enquiries shall be redirected to Council staff.
- If it is agreed with Council staff that it is appropriate for a view to be expressed by the group, only the Chair, or the Chair's proxy, can represent the group to the media. The Chair will work with the Council's Communication and Engagement team in relation to any public comments.

- Views expressed to the media on behalf of the group must have been previously agreed on by the group as a whole.
- If a member is contacted by a journalist for a view from their group, they must refer the journalist to Council Staff.
- Members are free to express a personal view in the media or the view of other organisations of which they are a member, at any time. However, they must make clear that these represent their private views as an individual, or the view of their organisation.

5. Confidential Information

In the course of their duties members will receive information that they need to treat as confidential. This will often be information that is either commercially sensitive or is personal to a particular individual or organisation.

Members should be aware that failure to observe confidentiality will impede the performance of Council and could expose the Council to prosecution under the Privacy Act 1993 and/or civil litigation.

Council staff will ensure that advisory group members are aware which information is confidential.

6. Individual queries

Members will not bring individual issues to their advisory groups that can best be dealt with by going through the Council's Contact Centre.

7. Honesty and Integrity

Members have a duty to act honestly. They must declare any private interests relating to their duties and take steps to resolve any conflicts of interest in such a way that protects the public interest. They must not act in order to gain financial or other benefits for themselves, their families, friends or business interests.

8. Complaints

Any complaints about other group members, officers or Councillors should be addressed confidentially to the Chair who can then raise the issue with relevant Council officers.

Appendix C: Recruitment and Selection Process

Wellington City Council will call for expressions of interest from qualified residents from within the city's boundaries via a number of different media. Residents interested in being an advisory group member will complete an application.

Annual Intake
