1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. General

Unless expressly provided otherwise in the Local Government Act 2002, or any other Act, a local authority may delegate to a committee, subcommittee, community board or officer of the local authority any of its responsibilities, duties, or powers.

When an Act or Regulation empowering the “Council” to carry out a decision-making function, that decision must be made by way of a resolution of the full Council unless the Act or Regulation, permits delegation to a Committee, Subcommittee, or Officer.

Delegation to officers is necessary for the operation of the Council and its administration would not be efficient, effective and timely in delivering services.

The business to be transacted by a Council and its administration is large and wide-ranging, dealing with the details of many Acts and Regulations, the Council’s Plans, Bylaws, and a range of Council functions and activities.

It is impossible for the elected Council to deal with everything itself. Decisions should be made at a level commensurate with efficiency and effectiveness. Generally, the legislation, which the Council uses on a day-to-day basis, provides for delegations.

The terms of reference and delegations are intended to allow the Council to delegate its powers and functions to the most efficient and effective levels.

The body or person to whom powers are delegated will usually exercise the delegated power, but is not obliged to do so. The most common circumstances where the body or person with the delegation might choose not to exercise it are when the matter has become a matter of public notoriety, or the issues are contentious and finely balanced.

1.2. Council

The following matters cannot be delegated to Committees, Subcommittees, Officers or any other subordinate decision-making body:

(a) the power to make a rate; or
(b) the power to make a bylaw; or

(d) the power to adopt a Long-term Plan, Annual Plan, or annual report; or

(g) the power to adopt a remuneration and employment policy; or...
(h) the power to approve or change a plan (RMA); or

(i) the power to approve or amend the Council’s Standing Orders; or

(j) the power to approve or amend the Code of Conduct for elected members; or

(k) the power to appoint and discharge members of committees or;

(l) the power to establish a joint committee with another local authority or other public body; or

(m) the power to make the final decision on a recommendation from the Ombudsman where it is proposed that Council not accept the recommendation.

Note: for (a) – (g) see clause 32(1) Schedule 7 Local Government Act 2002 and for (h) - (m) see clauses 15, 27, 30 Schedule 7 of Local Government Act 2002 and section 34A of Resource Management Act 1991

1.3. Establishment of Committees

Committee includes, in relation to the Council:-

The wording in each MOU provides:
“This Memorandum of Understanding provides for the strategic relationship between the parties and the opportunity for the Trust to contribute to Council decision making and to be a provider of leadership with Council for the City.”

Iwi are non-voting members of the Governance, Finance and Planning Committee; and the four subject based Committees. Iwi are to receive all papers.

An agreed iwi representative may attend these Committee meetings and may sit at the table and discuss/ debate matters as a participating member of that Committee.

       o (Note, the net operating budget or surplus for this purpose excludes revaluations and gain/loss on sale of assets and any other extraordinary items).
