4.3.2  For the purposes of 4.1.1 and 4.3.1, if an application lodged prior to 1 July 2005 was rejected under s88(3) of the Resource Management 1991 or s48(1) of the Building Act 2004, it is deemed not to have been received by the Council prior to 1 July 2005.

Exemption from the application of the policy

4.3.3  Council’s own developments are exempt from being liable to pay development contributions. For the avoidance of doubt, this exemption does not apply to Council–controlled Organisations, Council–controlled Trading Organisations or Council Organisations.

5  DEFINITIONS

In this policy:

Actual Increased Demand means the demand created by the most intensive non residential use(s) likely to become established in the development within 10 years from the date of the application.

Allotment has the meaning given to it in section 218(2) of the Resource Management Act 1991, and ‘lot’ has the same meaning.

Community facilities mean reserves, network infrastructure or community infrastructure for which development contributions may be required in accordance with section 199 of the LGA 2002.

Community infrastructure means:

(a) land, or development assets on land, owned or controlled by Council to provide public amenities; and
(b) includes land that the Council will acquire for that purpose.

Development means:

(a) any subdivision or other development that generates a demand for reserves, network infrastructure, or community infrastructure; but
(b) does not include the pipes or lines of a network utility operator.

Development contribution means a contribution:

(a) provided for in this development contribution policy; and
(b) calculated in accordance with the methodology.

Development Contribution Policy means the policy on development contributions included in the LTCCP for a territorial authority under section 102(q)(d) of the LGA 2002.

Equivalent Household Unit (‘EHU’) means:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>TYPE OF DEVELOPMENT:</th>
<th>EHU ASSESSMENT BASED ON:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Residential development</td>
<td>1 EHU per Household unit</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fee simple subdivision</td>
<td>1 EHU per allotment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Non residential development</td>
<td>1 EHU for every 65m² of gfa unless changed following an assessment under the process in 2.5.5 below</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Greenfield development means: a proposal that creates new residential or rural residential areas, and without limiting this definition in anyway, includes residential or rural residential development on land that was zoned Rural, or Open Space. It also includes land that was zoned Residential within the land areas to which appendices 12 to 14 and 16 to 22 apply in the operative District Plan as at 1 July 2005. For the avoidance of doubt, developments falling within this definition are also required to pay Citywide and catchment based (i.e. local) reserves.

Gross floor area ("gfa") is the sum of all floors of all buildings on a site, measured from the face of exterior walls, or from the centre lines of walls separating two buildings. In particular, gross floor area includes:

- Lobbies at each floor;
- Floor space in interior balconies and mezzanines;
- All other floor space not specifically excluded;

The gross floor area of a building shall not include:

- Elevator shafts and stairwells;
- Uncovered stairways;
- Floor space in terraces(open or roofed), external balconies, breezeways, porches;
- Areas used for vehicle parking and vehicle circulation, lift towers and machinery rooms;
- Switchboard areas / Plant rooms.

Household unit means a home or residence that is a self-contained unit includes kitchen and bathroom facilities of any nature and is physically separated, or capable of being separated, from any other household unit.

Methodology means the methodology for calculating development contributions set out in Schedule 13 to the LGA 2002.

Network infrastructure means the provision of roads and other transport, water, wastewater, and stormwater collection and management.

Network utility operator has the meaning given to it by section 166 of the Resource Management Act 1991.

Non residential development: means any development that falls outside the definition of residential development in this policy.

Residential development: means the development of premises for any domestic or related purpose for use by persons living in the premises alone or in family and / or non-family groups (whether any person is subject to care, supervision or not), but does not include work from home, hotels, motels, camping grounds, motor camps or other premises where residential accommodation for 5 or more travellers is offered at a daily tariff or other specified time and excludes a rest home, hostel accommodation or similar establishment that provides shared or communal facilities' (and residential activity, and use, has the same meaning).

Service connection means a physical connection to a service provided by, or on behalf of, the Council.

---

1 For example, if land to be developed was zoned rural in the District Plan as of 1 July 2005 the subdivision will be treated under the Development Contributions policy as a "Greenfield development".
