TECHNICAL TOURS

Sunday 25 July

Tours are hosted by Auckland City Council. All tours depart from SKYCITY Hotel, Corner Victoria and Federal Streets, Auckland City Centre, at 1.00pm and return approximately 4.30pm. Please select the tour you wish to attend on the registration form or online registration. The cost of each tour is $30 + GST. Partners may attend.

Rugby World Cup 2011 – Crouch, Touch, Pause...Engage

Auckland's vision is to ensure that RWC 2011 is a landmark global event that showcases Auckland's unique identity and innovative spirit. Pivotal to this vision is the need to leave a positive legacy: RWC 2011 delivers long-term enduring physical and social benefits to the Auckland region and its people.

To this end, Auckland is investing close to $100 million into the Tournament. The aim is to achieve significant return on that investment for all residents, regardless of their interest or involvement in RWC 2011. Five key legacy goals underpin this work: making the most of Auckland's waterfront, telling the world Auckland's story, taking pride in our place, making public transport a habit for Aucklanders and positioning Auckland as a major events destination.

This tour will take participants on a journey through Eden Park, one of the jewels of Auckland's RWC 2011 programme. This stadium's redevelopment captured the interest of the nation back in 2006 and continues to do so as the countdown to hosting arguably the most prestigious of the RWC 2011 matches draws closer. The tour will also feature a presentation outlining Auckland's region wide programme from festivals and community engagement, visitor market and economic development and the much talked about transport, operations and logistics that go hand in hand with hosting a major event of this scale.

The tour will combine a bus ride and walking, so sensible clothing and closed walking shoes are essential.

Waterfront Development

Auckland lays claim to an outstanding connection between land and sea in a way few cities around the world can. Sea and maritime interests are integral to Auckland's character, history and culture – the waterfront is where our city began and a place that offers tremendous future development potential.

The tour will start at the Westhaven Marina and incorporate elements of the Auckland Waterfront master plan. This plan includes the redevelopment of Wynyard point, currently a petrol-chemical store, the Maritime museum including the new memorial to Sir Peter Blake, the viaduct harbour, ferry terminal, Britomart rail station and Queens Wharf.

Participants will learn about special purpose vehicles used for procuring key blocks of land, the public private partnership for the above ground Britomart development and elements of the stakeholder management plan that ensured Auckland City worked effectively with other agencies and interest groups involved in the waterfront.

The tour will combine a bus ride and walking so suitable shoes will be needed.

Tamaki Revitalisation

New Zealand's biggest urban renewal project, a multi-agency programme, is taking shape in Tamaki. Investment totaling more than $3 billion will fuel the economic growth and address issues such as transport, housing, health, education and employment in an area known as the Tamaki Edge.

These investments include everything from new rail stations, revitalised town centres, a rapidly growing university technology park, quality homes for up to 6000 people in a former quarry site, and the Sylvia Park retail and office precinct creating up to 9,000 jobs when completed. It also includes the Tamaki Transformation Project, a partnership between the city council and government agencies to improve living standards in Glen Innes, Pt England and Panmure.

The Tamaki Edge Initiative ensures the coordinated development of amenities, services and lifestyle choices that will attract people to live and invest in the area. In addition, the Auckland-Manukau Eastern Transit Initiative is working toward identifying the options for better connections to the eastern sector of Auckland city and between Auckland city and Manukau city, concentrating on passenger transport, walking / cycling infrastructure and improved roading projects.

THEMED WORKSHOPS

Workshops take place from 1.30pm to 3.00pm. Capacity may be limited so we recommend you select the workshop you wish to attend on the registration form or online registration as well as a second choice in case that workshop is fully subscribed.

Infrastructure - Future Challenges and Opportunities

What are the future challenges and opportunities for infrastructure and how do we prioritise and fund infrastructure investment to meet the economic, social and environmental needs of our communities? This is the question asked, and answered.

Guest speaker
Michael Deegan

Economic Development - The Local Government/Central Government Nexus

With a focus on collaborative projects, this session will identify where local government and central government work well together and with the private sector and communities to deliver economic advantage.

Guest speaker senior economist
Dr Ganesh Nana

Local Boards – Are they the Model for the Future?

What role will local boards play in the future? They are one of the unique features of the new governance arrangements for Auckland. This session examines the local board model and considers the degree to which they could be extended to other areas in New Zealand.
