The Mayor made the following announcement:

“At this time of the second nationwide COVID lockdown, it’s a time of considerable uncertainty and anxiety for many people. At this time I want to record again my gratitude and thanks to all of our essential workers, who are keeping us safe, keeping us fed, keeping us informed and keeping essential services operating. I want to thank the medical and emergency services, Police, staff of the Ministry of Health, including the contact tracers who I know are having some often challenging tasks in terms of reaching out to contact people who have been close contact with people carrying the virus. I want to thank the producers, transporters and the retailers of our food. I want to thank the media for helping keeping us informed, and in so doing demonstrating that we all have a stake in this. We are all in fact part of the story. Finally I want to thank all of the staff and contractors, including our own people, who are keeping that vital infrastructure running. I also want to thank all Wellingtonians for your work, for your consideration and for doing the right things. Let’s support each other and together we will get through this. He waka eke noa.”

 - a. ~~Fourteen~~ Fifteen total councillors (other than the mayor).
 - b. ~~Two councillors being elected at-large.~~
 - c. ~~Twelve~~ Fifteen councillors being elected by ward.
 - i. One councillor being elected from a Māori ward.

- c. No alterations to the boundaries of either community.
