Seeds to Feeds .04

Season '22/'23

Our kaupapa:

Connecting people around local food

What do we mean by 'local food'?

Locally grown or foraged
e.g. potatoes grown by Trish in her backyard garden

Locally served and eaten
e.g. Trish, Murray and Anne eating potato curry together at the local community hall

Locally processed to make an ingredient e.g. tomato passata made by Murray in a community kitchen

Locally made food that is ready to eat
e.g. Potato curry made by Anne in her kitchen at home

Connecting people around local food

“I rang to let you know that as a result of your work there were some really good unexpected outcomes. Connections were made with people who had needs which others are now aware of. So, unintentional consequences and very positive - so thank you.”

Phone call from Eater

Who's a part of this?

Food system resilience is bolstered through strengthening relationships and institutional connections.

STRENGTHENING WELLINGTON'S LOCAL FOOD PRODUCTION SYSTEM

Final remarks

Mai i te kōpae ki te urupa, tātou ako tonu ai.

From the cradle to the grave we are forever learning.

BACKGROUND

- Our purpose is to support, facilitate and represent businesses.
- We became Toitū carbon zero certified in 2016 and have reduced our emissions by 38.5% since our baseline year.

2022 PILOT

- Two cohorts completed, in June and October of 2022
- 25 businesses supported to start their journey
- Community of climate action champions created, businesses can celebrate successes and work through challenges together

SESSION 1 Bicultural understanding of sustainability with Whetu Rangihaeata

Learn how Te Ao Māori approach sustainability and how deeply its engrained within Māori culture. Form and share your pēpēhā to understand where you come from and the importance of how we can move forward together.

SESSION 2 Implementing change with the Sustainability Trust

Discover how taking a systems approach can encourage sustainable behaviour. Get key tips to create a business case for effective buy-in with your senior managers and be able to identify the best ways to facilitate change.

SESSION 3 Climate and carbon basics with Ekos

Understand the severity of the climate emergency and the role your organisation can play in responding to it. Learn what carbon emissions are and how these can be reduced through reduction and offsetting.

SESSION 4 Low carbon solutions with Ecogeek

Take a look at low-carbon technology and the opportunity it creates for sustainable working. Cultivate some great ideas you can easily introduce into your workplace that'll help lower your carbon and get you moving.

SESSION 5 Sustainable Wellington City future for businesses

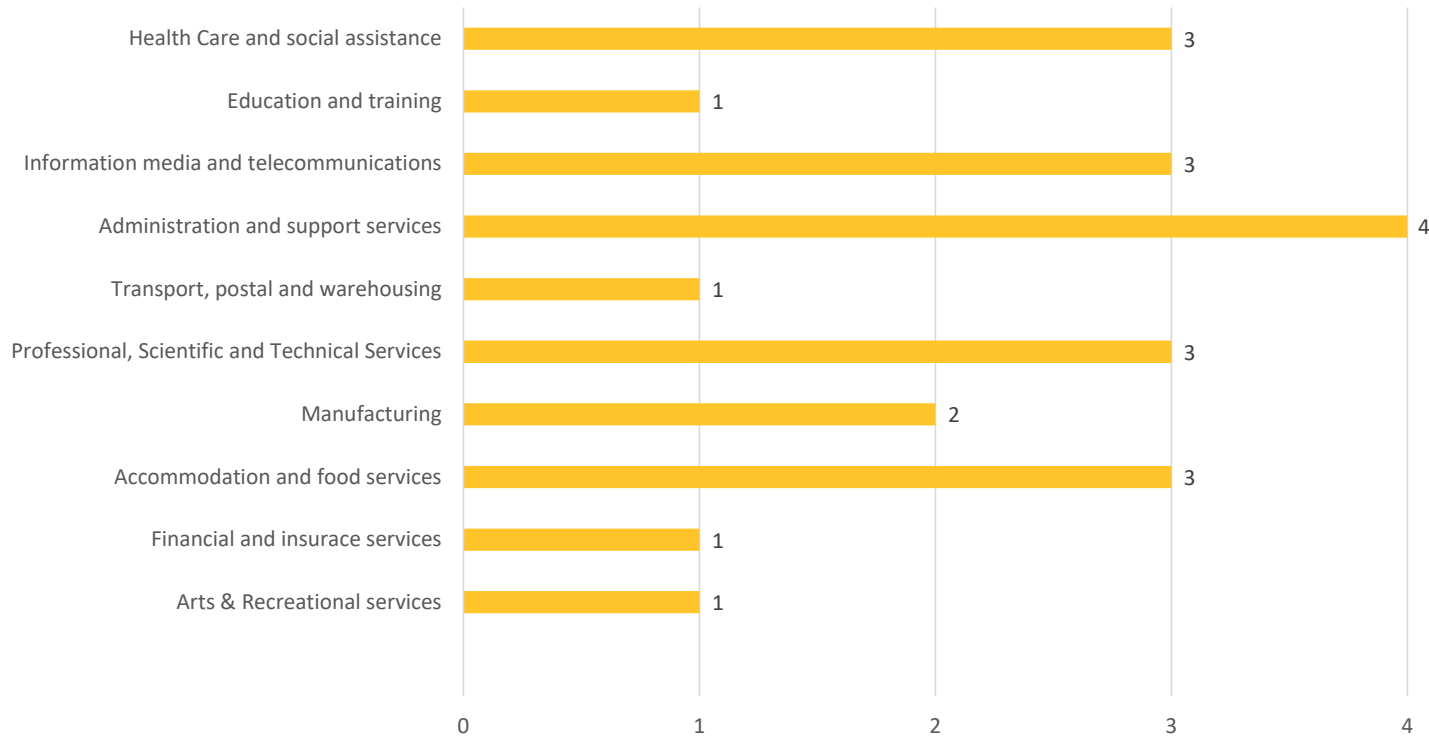

Get to know the future of climate action in Wellington City and why it's important to act now. We'll look at how individual workplaces, like yours, can contribute to Te Whanganui a Tara's carbon reduction goals and make a positive impact.

SESSION 6 Carbon reduction solutions with Ekos

Get started with your carbon emission reduction plan as you work collaboratively with other business owners during the final session. By understanding your biggest emitters you'll be able to move forward, make a plan and Go Zero.

COMMENTS

- “It really did help me to get a better understanding of sustainability. I felt like I knew more than I did, and this bootcamp was a really good place to start. Would recommend this to someone who doesn’t know much yet.”
- “I thought it was really good and covered a wide range of topics.”
- “I loved it, a great initiative.”

KEY LEARNINGS

- Programme flow: speaker order was altered in cohort 2, allowing content to flow better.
- Delivery structure: participants liked the mix of in person/ online over 3 weeks, this format will remain the same.
- Content: we will continue to review and edit the content depending on businesses in attendance, to provide relevant examples.
- Attendance: due to COVID and staff shortages, numerous 2022 businesses dropped out of programme before completion. To accomodate this challenge we plan to extend the geographical reach for 2023.
- Follow up/ alumni group: businesses got great value out of the continued meetings and follow ups. The closing ceremonies were a great networking opportunity too. We will continue these for 2023.

EXPANDING THE REACH

- By expanding our reach, there will be larger impact across the wider Wellington region.
- Sustainability support will be accessible to more SMEs.
- With the success of our pilot programme, we will gather case studies to promote the 2023 bootcamp

2023 STRATEGY

- Following the success of the 2022 bootcamp, we will put together case studies to showcase the value of attending the sessions.
- Our partnerships with Te Awe and the Wellington Pasifika Business Network have formalised and continues to developed, so we will further promote the programme through these networks.
- We already have committment from 1 businesses to attend the bootcamp in 2023.
