

Appl No	Organisation Name	Project Description	Total Cost	Amount Requested	Amount Recommended	Amount Granted	Comments
1	Beginning Experience NZ Charitable Trust	to assist people who are grieving the loss of a spouse	$747	$400	$320		This programme supported by Anglican Diocese and gives financial support Would recommend $ 320.00 for venue hire
2	Epilepsy Association Of NZ, Wellington Branch	Field Officer service for epileptics	$110,000	$3,000	nil		National Organisation
3	Hutt Valley Fencing Club	trial fencing	$1,820	$1,068	$1,068		The project supports inclusiveness by providing gear for Tawa children to have a go at this activity. This is a new initiative for Tawa and should attract good interest and the venue is very close to the intermediate and the college making it an accessible activity for Tawa youth.
4	Mana Parents Centre	a reprint/update of information flier to be sent out in advertising drive	$1,631	$607	nil		Not Tawa based or targeted, but targeted at Mana / Porirua
5	Parents Inc. - Attitude Division	for five presentations to 1382 Tawa College students	$750	$750	Nil		Attitudes programme well known through secondary schools and has been an ongoing programme on offer at Tawa College. Perhaps should be paid for by the school but we recognise beneficial outcomes to the community
6	Redwood Day Care Charitable Trust	to purchase an electric or manually operated Lazyboy chair	$1,658	$1,658	nil		This project has been funded for for the past two years
7	SPELD Mana Incorporated	assessment assistance and tuition subsidies for students experiencing financial difficulties	$350	$1,000	nil		Asking for $1000 which would cover 2 or 3 children's assessments but without the budget for follow up ? For Tawa children who are identified with specific learning disabilities. Speld has been funded from the Izard Trust
8	St Francis Xaviers School	Parents Inc. seminar to educate parents on how to raise their primary aged school children	$4,227	$1,995	$1,995		The school is taking some social responsibility for running an event that is accessible to all parents in the community. St Francis Xavier School promotes community spirit and supports these types of initiatives.. The project has strong backing from the school Board of Trustees and staff. There is a need in the community for these types of programmes
