P1 Sch1

Introduction

Section 6(f) of the RMA identifies "the protection of historic heritage from inappropriate subdivision, use, and development" as a matter of national importance. Buildings, structures, areas and archaeological sites associated with Wellington's past are a precious and finite resource and are part of what makes Wellington unique. They help the community understand and learn about culture and history, provide a sense of place, identity and well-being and contribute to the evolving story of Wellington City. Evidence of heritage in the environment provides a sense of time, and a connection between the past and the future as the city changes and grows. The whakataukī (Māori saying), "Me huri whakamuri ka titiro whakamua" / "In order to plan for the future, we must look to the past" encapsulates this principle.

Wellington City has several layers of culture and heritage. Buildings, structures and areas in this chapter do not recognise mana whenua heritage. However, development within sites and areas of significance to Māori needs to be progressed through a process that actively engages mana whenua to increase the prominence of mana whenua heritage in these areas. Sites and areas of significance to mana whenua are managed by the provisions contained in the Sites and Areas of Significance to Māori Chapter.

The Wellington Regional Policy Statement Policy 21 includes a list of criteria to ensure significant historic heritage resources are identified in district and regional plans in a consistent way. Nominations must be assessed against all of the following criteria and fit one (or more) of the following criteria to have significant historic heritage values:

1. Historic values;
2. Physical values;
3. Social values;
4. Tangata whenua values;
5. Rarity; or
6. Representativeness.

Sustainable long-term use

One of the best ways to protect the recognised heritage values of built heritage is to ensure that it remains in a sustainable long-term use. The original use of a building can be part of the reason why it is important and helps retain special associations between people and place. When the original use of a building changes to a new one, this is defined as 'reuse' and can help continue the story of that place. The range of uses that are appropriate for a given site is managed by zone provisions. Both the original ongoing use and any future reuse can be a sustainable long term use for built heritage and can be facilitated by compatible additions and alterations and/or carefully done partial demolition to support its ongoing functionality. Existing buildings contain embodied energy, and their retention can save carbon associated with the construction of new buildings, including in materials, transport, demolition and landfill.

This chapter of the District Plan includes provisions relating to:

1. Heritage buildings and heritage structures – These are individual buildings and structures that have been assessed as having significant heritage values. The exterior of most heritage buildings and heritage structures are protected in their entirety (including roofs). Some heritage buildings only have specific features protected, such as façades. A smaller number have their interiors or interior features protected. Known buildings and structures located on the same site as heritage buildings and heritage structures but do not have heritage value themselves are identified as non-scheduled heritage buildings and structures’. These are listed as exclusions in the protections required’ column of SCHED1 and the historic heritage rules, except for HH-R2 and HH-R9 do not apply to them

For the avoidance of doubt:

- a. Works to any heritage building or heritage structure that is also located within a heritage area will be assessed against the provisions for heritage buildings and structures and not the heritage area provisions.
- b. Regardless, any related resource consent assessment will also consider the values of the heritage area, including the relative contribution of building height to those values and the extent of compliance with any height standard.
- c. Works to any heritage building or heritage structure (where only specific features are protected) that is also located in a heritage area (and the work also affects those parts of the building not specifically scheduled) will be assessed against the heritage area provisions.; and SCHED1 and SCHED2 identifies heritage buildings and heritage structures.

2. Heritage areas – These are areas that contain a concentration ~~and continuity~~ of buildings and structures with similar heritage values. ~~Heritage areas contain contributing buildings and structures which have not been listed in SCHED1 Heritage buildings or SCHED2 Heritage Structures but have significant heritage value which~~ when considered as a collection have significant heritage value. ‘Contributing buildings and structures’ are those which support the heritage values of the area. Scheduled Heritage buildings and heritage structures may be located within heritage areas, as can b Buildings and structures that do not contribute to the heritage values of the area, ~~and~~ are identified as non-heritage in SCHED3 - Heritage Areas. ~~Demolition rules do not apply to non-heritage buildings and structures.~~

For the avoidance of doubt:

- ~~a. Works to any heritage building or heritage structure that is also located within a heritage area will be assessed against the provisions for heritage buildings and structures and not the heritage area provisions;~~
 - ~~i. However, the resource consent assessment will also consider the values of the heritage area, including the relative contribution of building height to those values and the extent of compliance with any height standard;~~
- ~~b. Works to any heritage building or heritage structure (where only specific features are protected) that is also located in a heritage area (and the work also affects those parts of the building not specifically scheduled) will be assessed against the heritage area provisions; and~~
- a. Works to buildings and structures located adjacent to a heritage area, but not within, are not assessed against the provisions of this chapter.

SCHED3 identifies heritage areas.

3. Scheduled archaeological sites – An archaeological site is any place (including buildings, structures or shipwrecks) that was associated with pre-1900 human activity, where there is evidence relating to the history of New Zealand that can be investigated using archaeological methods. The archaeological sites scheduled in this District Plan are not an extensive record of the total number of sites that exist, but a smaller number that have been assessed in detail as having significant heritage value. The extent of each scheduled archaeological site has been identified and mapped. The provisions of this chapter apply to the use, development and activities within this identified extent.

SCHED4 identifies archaeological sites subject to the provisions of the District Plan.

4. Heritage orders – Under section 189 of the RMA a heritage protection authority may give notice to the Council of its requirement for a heritage order. Where a heritage order is included in the District Plan regardless of the provisions of the Plan or resource consents, no person may do anything, without the prior written consent of the relevant heritage protection authority named in the Plan in respect of the order.

APP1 – Historic Heritage Advice Notes contains useful information on assessing effects on heritage values and the different ways in which historic heritage is addressed by regulation and advocacy. APP1 also contains reference to the provisions of the Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga Act 2014 which protect all archaeological sites.

Where a heritage building, heritage structure, heritage area or scheduled archaeological site is entered on the New Zealand Heritage List/Rārangi Kōrero, the Council will inform Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga in respect of any resource consent or District Plan change. Council will expect an application for resource consent in respect of these listings to include written comments from Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga.

Cross references to other relevant District Plan provisions

P1 Sch1

It is important to note that in addition to the provisions in this chapter, a number of other Part 2: District-Wide chapters also contain provisions that may be relevant, including:

- Subdivision - The Subdivision Chapter contains provisions which manage subdivision of land including the sites of heritage buildings and heritage structures, within heritage areas and the extent of scheduled archaeological sites.
- Earthworks - The Earthworks Chapter manages the adverse effects of earthworks including on the sites of heritage buildings and heritage structures, and within heritage areas, ~~and the extent of scheduled archaeological sites.~~
- Signs - The signs chapter manages signs on heritage buildings, heritage structures and their sites, within heritage areas and the extent of scheduled archaeological sites.
- Infrastructure - Other overlays – The Infrastructure chapter manages the effects of infrastructure on heritage buildings, heritage structures and their sites, within heritage areas and the extent of scheduled archaeological sites.

Resource consent may therefore be required under rules in this chapter as well as other chapters. Unless specifically stated in a rule or in this chapter, resource consent is required under each relevant rule. The steps to determine the status of an activity are set out in the General Approach chapter.

Reasons for protection of the place

The place (Erskine College) merits protection because it has cultural, architectural, recreational, educational and spiritual significance.

Erskine College has its origins in the Order of the Society of the Sacred Heart, a teaching order for girls and young women, founded by Madeleine Sophie Barat in France in 1800. The Convent of the Sacred Heart (as the school was first named) was established in Island Bay in 1905. Construction of the Main Block was completed in 1906.

The school practised a distinct and uniquely liberal educational philosophy (given special notice when the school was integrated into the public education system in 1983). It played a leading role in the education of many New Zealand women whose cultural, economic, social and artistic contribution to the development of Aotearoa is inestimable.

The College and the Chapel are also associated with countless individual and collective events including celebrations of the highest accolades accorded any woman by the Catholic Church to the founder of the Society of the Sacred Heart – St. Madeleine Sophie Barat (beatified 1908, canonised 1925) and a later member of the society St. Philippine Duchesne (beatified 1940, canonised 1988).

Erskine College Main Block (Convent Building) and the later St Anthony's Wing (1916), and Chapel of the Sacred Heart (1929), were designed by John Swan, Wellington's most important designer of that time of secular and Catholic architecture. The design of the College is an original symmetrical adaptation of an early Tudor fortified manor house, a unique style in New Zealand. The Main Block (Convent Building) has a clearly resolved plan-form in the shape of an "H", a clarity reflected in the robust monumental forms, elements and symmetry of the elevations. The ecclesiastical purpose of the building is simply stated in the cruciforms of the corbelled chimneys, parapets, hood moulds and decorated gables which are all redolent of Neo-Tudor style. The central verandahs are an interesting local modification.

The layout and form of the Chapel of the Sacred Heart have precedence in Alsacian church forms being modelled on the Baptismal church of Mother Ann Biehler, superior of the Island Bay Convent at the time of its construction. The Chapel was designed as an

Reasons for protection of the surrounding area

The inclusion of the area surrounding the place (Erskine College) is necessary for the purpose of ensuring the protection and reasonable enjoyment of the place because:

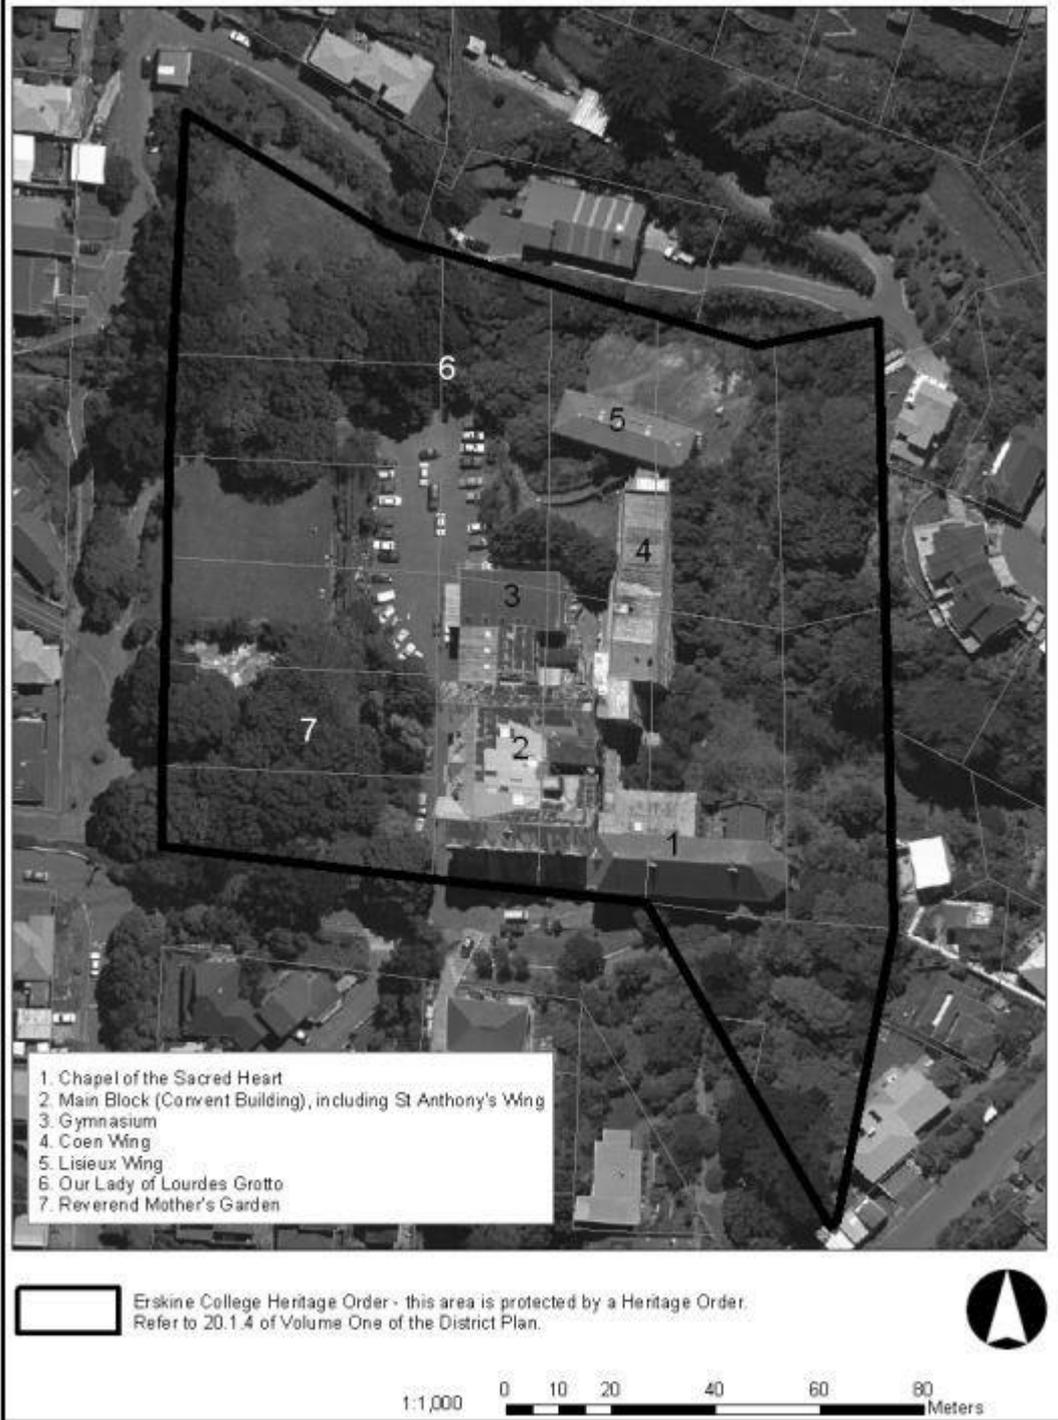

- The grounds (including notable trees) have cultural, architectural, recreational, educational and spiritual significance.
- The generous gardens today are the result of the formal layout and planting of native and exotic trees and shrubs carried out by the nuns from the time the school was built in 1906. They provide the setting for the College buildings and a natural recreational resource for the local community.
- Erskine College and adjacent grounds have provided a built focus for Island Bay for 100 years and have made a significant contribution to the local townscape.

Provisions and plans relevant to the Heritage Order

Erskine College Main Block (Convent Building) and the Chapel of the Sacred Heart are included in the heritage schedule of the Wellington City Council District Plan, and are subject to the heritage rules, including any alteration or demolition requiring the consent of the Council prior to any such work commencing. In addition, the rules state that where a heritage order applies that the heritage protection authority will be notified. Any proposed work activity within the place known as Erskine College is subject to the heritage order and the prior approval of Save Erskine College Trust.

The property is currently zoned Outer Residential in the Operative District Plan.

Viewshafts

VIEW	Viewshafts

Introduction

The purpose of the Viewshafts Overlay (viewshafts) is to identify and maintain significant views within Wellington City that contribute to its sense of place and identity. ~~To achieve this purpose the Viewshaft Overlay identifies a number of viewshafts that identify where built development is restricted to ensure that the views (i.e. 'focal' elements at the end of the viewshaft and 'context' elements that surround the focal elements) are not compromised by future development.~~

All ~~of~~ the views covered by the ~~mapped extent of the Viewshaft Overlay~~ viewshafts are identified in Schedule 5. ~~These views have local city-wide public significance as they promote the relationship of the city to its landscape setting, providing provide~~ a means of orientating oneself in the City and ~~provide~~ visual relief from the ~~monotony of~~ continuous built form. Many ~~elements protected by~~ viewshafts are also recognised regionally, nationally or internationally. They are unique to Wellington and offer significant visual amenity to residents and visitors alike.

~~There are 178 identified~~ viewshafts identified that traverse the ~~following zones City Centre and Waterfront Zones:~~

- City Centre Zone
- Special Purpose Waterfront Zone
- High Density Residential Zone
- Medium Density Residential Zone
- Special Purpose Wellington Town Belt Zone
- Special Purpose Tertiary Education Zone
- Open Space Zone.

~~These~~ The views ~~that these viewshafts protect~~ are experienced from a range of positions, some of which may be in a different zone to their intended focal point.

~~While all the identified viewshafts are important and in need of protection, their relative public significance could vary, depending on the significance of their viewpoint location, the extent or character of the view, and/or the meaning and significance of their focal element (i.e. local, city wide, national and/or international). On that basis two categories of viewshafts have been identified:~~

1. Category 1 viewshafts, which have an enhanced public significance \(protecting iconic and landmark views\); and
2. Category 2 viewshafts, which have public significance.

There are three main types of viewshafts identified in the District Plan:

1. Viewshafts protecting views from the City Centre towards of the harbour, hills, landmarks, and wider setting;
2. Viewshafts protecting wide-angle elevated views across the harbour from the Cable Car station viewing platform; and
3. Viewshafts protecting views of landmark buildings and places within the City Centre.

These viewshafts protect two three forms of views are spatially characterised as either ('contained' views, and 'vista' views and or 'panoramic' views).

Contained viewshafts are typically those experienced along a street that is vertically framed by buildings (existing or future enabled/permited) located along their edge, terminating at an identified focal point. They are important because they:

- 1. Recognise the unique relationship between topography and built form;
- 2. Reinforce the historical connection between the original shoreline and the harbour; and
- 3. Promote the visual connection between the City Centre and the inner harbour and, in doing so, contribute to wayfinding and an enhanced sense of place by providing continuous views to the inner harbour from the Golden Mile.

Vista viewshafts are more expansive than the contained viewshafts. They are typically experienced viewed from elevated positions or from areas that allow a wider viewing angle, and complement the contained viewshafts experienced at street level. Their key features include:

- 1. Establishing the relationship of the City Centre with its wider landscape and harbour setting; and
- 2. Reinforcing the City Centre's identity and sense of place.

~~Panoramic views are expansive, wide-angled distant views providing a complete view of an area. Viewshafts associated with panoramic views are open.~~

~~Some viewshafts (whether contained or vista views) have been identified due to their focus on important landmark buildings or iconic places within the City. These viewshafts are significant as they provide an understanding of the City Centre environment, promote its history and assist wayfinding.~~

~~The Viewshafts Overlay Viewshafts seeks to protect these identified viewshafts to ensure that they are not compromised by future development. Views, including the identified associated focal and context elements, that are the subject of this Viewshaft Overlay viewshafts are identified in Schedule 5 and the Viewshaft Overlay.~~

~~The rules in this chapter apply to sites across multiple zones where the Viewshaft Overlay viewshafts apply, as identified in Schedule 5 and on the District Plan maps (through the Viewshaft Overlay). The purpose of the rule framework is to regulate development that intrudes on the specific parameters of each viewshaft as set out in Schedule 5, but not to prevent changes to the views' (focal and context elements) themselves. Any such development will be subject to the provisions of the relevant zone based chapter.~~

Other relevant District Plan provisions

It is important to note that in addition to the provisions in this chapter, a number of other Part 2: District-Wide matters chapters and Part 3: Area-Specific chapters also contain provisions that may be relevant, for activities in underlying Zone chapters, including:

- ~~City Centre Zone~~ — the City Centre Zone contains objectives, policies, rules and standards to manage the location, bulk and scale of new buildings and structures, or additions and alterations to existing buildings and structures.
- ~~Waterfront Zone~~ — the Waterfront Zone contains objectives, policies, rules and standards to manage the location, bulk and scale of new buildings and structures, or additions and alterations to existing buildings and structures. A zero height limit applies in the Waterfront Zone.

Resource consent may therefore be required under rules in this chapter as well as other chapters. Unless specifically stated in a rule or in this chapter, resource consent is required under each relevant rule. The steps to determine the status of an activity are set out in the General Approach chapter.

Notable Trees

TREE	Notable Trees

Introduction

Within Wellington City, individual and groups of trees are identified and protected for their significant historic heritage, ecological or amenity values. These trees may be notable as prominent natural features and landmarks, contributors to local identity, spectacular or rare specimens, or associated with special sites, events or people. It is important that these trees are identified, protected and cared for so that they can be enjoyed by future generations.

Notable trees can be either indigenous or exotic species and located on either public land (such as road reserves or parks) or on private property. For a tree to be notable it must be evaluated against the 'Standard Tree Evaluation Method' (STEM) and score 110 points or higher or have significant cultural and historical value, taking into account potential STEM scores.

Notable trees are different to urban allotment trees which are trees that are part of significant natural areas (SNAs) in urban neighbourhoods.

SCHED6 lists notable trees.

Other relevant District Plan provisions

It is important to note that in addition to the provisions in this chapter, the following Part 2: District-Wide chapters may also be of relevance, including:

- Subdivision - The Subdivision Chapter contains provisions which manage subdivision of sites with notable trees.
- Earthworks - The Earthworks Chapter manages the adverse effects of earthworks on the environment, including within the root protection area of notable trees.
- Infrastructure - Other overlays - The Infrastructure - Other Overlays chapter manages repair, maintenance and installation of infrastructure within the root protection area of notable trees.

Resource consent may therefore be required under rules in this chapter as well as other chapters. Unless specifically stated in a rule or in this chapter, resource consent is required under each relevant rule. The steps to determine the status of an activity are set out in the General Approach chapter.

Sites and Areas of Significance to Māori

SASM	Site and Areas of Significance to Māori

Introduction

The purpose of the Sites and Areas of Significance to Māori chapter is to identify and protect sites and areas significant to iwi and Māori. This chapter gives effect to a greater strategic direction for enriching the unique culture and identity of Wellington City. Sites and areas of significance are important themselves and the relationship Mana Whenua has with these sites are important to protect and this further will build on the cultural identity of Wellington City. All these in return will bring partnership aspirations for the city. There is an enduring, intergenerational protection ethic for mana whenua that is constantly evolving, to enhance, manage, maintain iwi and Māori sites of significance. The role of the mana whenua as kaitiaki, that is to take care and look after these sites, can only be done by iwi and mana whenua. This chapter provides the framework for mana whenua to exercise their role maintaining and nurturing these sites and areas (as guided by them).

Each site and area are a unique taonga and has unique qualities in its own right. Some have been modified by development and have buildings and structures located on them. Some sites have visible, tangible or physical features, while others do not, yet are equally important. All of these sites are considered taonga. While some sites are historical sites, others are living spaces and contemporary sites that require treatment based on the current use and development of 'here and now'.

All sites and areas identified in the District Plan are significant for different reasons. Mana whenua seek appropriate and purposeful engagement for each. At the same time different land use and building activities have different impacts on the mana of each site. The District Plan manages this by categorising sites to provide a level of protection commensurate with significance. The location of each site and area of significance has been determined with the guidance and direction of mana whenua. The provision of categorisation gives a tool to understand that although there are similarities within the rule framework, that within consultation with iwi there may be different outcomes depending on the taonga. To ensure the effects of development on the mana and unique significance of each site and area is managed the extent of each site has been mapped. The provisions of this chapter apply to the use, development and activities within this identified extent. Rule SASM-R3 only applies where modification of those parts of a Category A or B site or area of significance to Māori specifically identified in the 'features integral' column of SCHED7 is to occur. Where there are no features listed as integral to the site, or the identified features are not to be modified, this rule does not apply.

While some sites are historical sites, others are living spaces and contemporary sites that require treatment based on the current use and development of 'here and now'. Marae are structures that represent living cultural significance to iwi and Māori and to our city. These important structures represent historical whakapapa and oral history and their purpose is sacred and important as the centre of traditional, ritual, and community activities. Marae have a high cultural value as the centre of iwi activities, and function to sustain iwi practices of everyday life. The Marae is the physical representation of Māoritanga and represents belonging which is of high significance. As such, the District Plan includes Marae as sites of significance and enables their ongoing use and development and the establishment of new Marae.

Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga is responsible for issuing any archaeological authority for any earthworks that may affect an archaeological site \(refer to Appendix 1 for more information\)

Sites in SCHED7 are as follows:

Category A

Wāhi Tapu, Wāhi Tūpuna, Kāinga, Mahinga Kai sites and areas that have high level of significance.

Category B

Kōrero tuku iho, Otaota, Ngakinga, Takiwā, Te Ara Tawhito, Te Ara Pakanga, Wāhi Taonga, Wāhi Tawhito sites and areas that are significant for Mana Whenua, however they may not match the level of significance to the sites and areas listed in Category A.

Category C

Active Marae.

These places represent historical whakapapa and oral history and their purpose is sacred and important as the centre of traditional, ritual, and community activities. Marae have a high cultural value as the centre of iwi activities, and function to sustain iwi practices of everyday life. The Marae is the physical representation of Māoritanga and represents belonging which is of high significance. This is to acknowledge spaces of historic and present use by mana whenua.

Other relevant District Plan provisions

It is important to note that in addition to the provisions in this chapter, a number of other Part 2: District-Wide chapters also contain provisions that protect the values of Sites and Areas of Significance to Māori. Earthworks and subdivision activities relating to sites and areas of significance to Māori are located within these specific chapters.

- Subdivision - The Subdivision Chapter contains provisions which manage subdivision of land within Sites
- Earthworks - The Earthworks Chapter manages the adverse effects of earthworks within Sites and Areas of Significance to Māori.
- Infrastructure other overlays- the Infrastructure chapter contains provisions relating to the use, development and upgrade of infrastructure activities within Sites and Areas of Significance to Māori.
- Signs - The signs chapter manages signs within the extent of scheduled archaeological sites and sites of significance.

Resource consent may therefore be required under rules in this chapter as well as other chapters. Unless specifically stated in a rule or in this chapter, resource consent is required under each relevant rule. The steps to determine the status of an activity are set out in the General Approach chapter.

Viewshafts

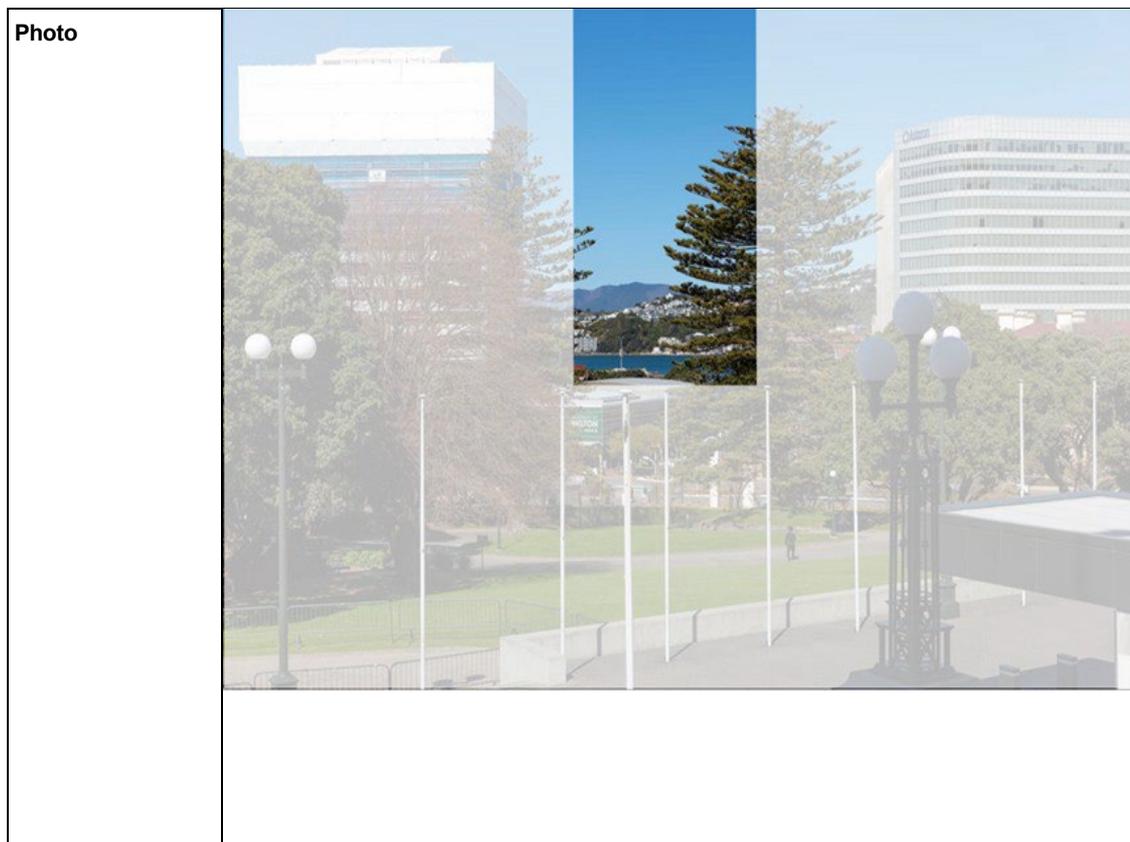

Note: In order to accurately survey sites with regards to viewshafts identified in Schedule 5, surveyors will need to look at the base, left margin and right margin descriptions.

The drawings must be of a scale that allows the accurate assessment of the visual effects and must be accompanied by a certificate from a registered land surveyor or person with an appropriate level of professional expertise.

Both of these viewshafts are individually and collectively significant and promote the image of Wellington as NZ’s ‘seat of government’ and capital city in views from key points. Although the two buildings present distinctly different form and architectural character/features, they are both well-known city landmarks. Consequently, the viewshaft acknowledges and promotes the townscape significance of these buildings and the contribution they make to the sense of place in this locality.

APP1 – Historic Heritage Advice Notes

Historic Heritage Advice Notes

ICOMOS NZ Charter and other policy documents and guidelines

The International Council on Monuments and Sites (ICOMOS) is a non-governmental organisation concerned with the protection of heritage places worldwide. “The ICOMOS New Zealand Charter 2010” sets out the principles and methods for heritage conservation in New Zealand. Other relevant international charters and documents include the “Burra Charter”, the “Xi’an Declaration on the Conservation of the Setting of Heritage Structures, Sites and Areas 2005”, and the World Heritage Resource Manual Series published jointly by ICCROM, ICOMOS, IUCN and UNESCO.

In New Zealand, Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga (HNZPT) produce the “Sustainable Management of Historic Heritage Guidance” series, and Manatu Taonga the Ministry of Culture and Heritage, publishes the “Policy for Government Departments’ Management of Historic Heritage”. The “Wellington Heritage Policy, September 2010” and the Greater Wellington Regional Council Regional Policy Statement are the basis for the Council’s approach to heritage management.

~~These documents provide important references in identifying and protecting heritage, and in the resource consent process including for the assessment of environmental effects.~~

These documents provide important references in identifying and protecting heritage. They also contribute to the assessment of environmental effects within resource consent processes.

Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga

HNZPT is New Zealand’s leading national historic heritage agency. The Council will inform HNZPT where a resource consent or plan change is applied for in respect of a scheduled heritage item that is also on the New Zealand Heritage List/Rārangī Kōrero. The Council will expect an application for resource consent that relates to a heritage item that is listed on the New Zealand Heritage List/Rārangī Kōrero to include written comments from HNZPT.

Heritage Schedules

Heritage items may only be scheduled by way of a Plan Change, and once scheduled are not categorised further. The relevant schedule includes a reference number, the address of each item, a site identifier such as the legal description, address, site name or description, a list of any particular features that have been specifically scheduled, an indication of values, and a map reference or link. The schedule entry is not a comprehensive or exclusive record.

The Wellington Heritage Inventory

The Wellington Heritage Inventory is an online tool that provides more detailed information of why an area, building, object, or site is scheduled in the District Plan. The information can be used in assessing the effects of development proposals on the heritage values of a place. The information is updated and revised from time to time as additional information becomes available. This does not affect the scheduling of items in the District Plan. Absence from the schedule entry or Wellington Heritage Inventory of any reference to a feature does not indicate that the feature is of no interest and can therefore be altered or removed without consent. Where there is doubt the Council’s heritage advisors should be consulted.

Conservation plans

~~A conservation plan is a method of managing the cultural significance of a place of cultural heritage value.~~

A Conservation Plan is an objective report which documents the history, fabric, and cultural heritage value of a place, assesses its cultural heritage significance, describes the condition of the place, outlines conservation policies for managing the place, and makes recommendations for the conservation of the place. It contains policies for the conservation of the place. The purpose of a conservation plan is to ensure that the significance of a heritage place is identified in detail, to ensure that when changes occur the heritage values are not removed or lost. Ideally, conservation plans should be prepared for all scheduled heritage items. Where a conservation plan has been prepared for a heritage item and peer reviewed by Council's heritage team, its policies can be taken into consideration when assessing the effects of a development proposal on a scheduled heritage item.

The document referred to in the preparation of conservation plans is J S Kerr's "The Conservation Plan: A guide to the preparation of conservation plans for places of European cultural significance", prepared by the National Trust of Australia, 7th edition, 2013.

ArchSite

All archaeological sites that have been identified within the district are recorded on ArchSite, the New Zealand Archaeological Association's site recording scheme. ArchSite uses GIS (Geographic Information System) technology to manage and display information on maps. It is the national inventory of archaeological sites in New Zealand.

Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga and the Accidental Discovery Protocol

Under the Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga Act 2014 (HNZPT Act) it is unlawful for any person to modify or destroy, or cause to be modified or destroyed, the whole or any part of an archaeological site without the prior authority of Heritage New Zealand. The purpose of the archaeological authority process under the HNZPT Act is to manage the information recovery process during the process of modifying an archaeological site. If you wish to do any work that may affect an archaeological site you must obtain an authority from Heritage New Zealand before you begin. This is the case regardless of whether the land on which the site is located is designated, or the activity is permitted under the District or Regional Plan, a resource or building consent has been granted. The HNZPT Act provides for substantial penalties for unauthorised destruction or modification. For archaeological sites scheduled in the District Plan, an archaeological authority from HNZPT may be required in addition to any resource consents required by the Council.

If you discover a previously unrecorded archaeological site (for example, when you are undertaking earthworks), you must stop any work that could affect the site and contact Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga for advice on how to proceed. The Police will also need to be notified if any koiwi/human remains are revealed and if any artifacts/taonga tūturu are found the Ministry for Culture and Heritage must be notified.
