The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Wellington, Victoria University and the University of Otago have kindly agreed to let walkers cross their properties on the historic Roman Catholic Mount Street. Walk up Mount Street to the entrance of the Sacred Heart Church and then onto the footpath on the outside edge of the carpark. The route is described here from the city to sea but may be walked in either direction. The walk takes about six to seven hours but can be done in stages. The route is described here from the city to sea but may be walked in either direction. Depending on which way you go, the Cable Car in Wellington is the beginning or end of the North Island’s magnificent project – a defined track from North Cape to Bluff. Follow the City to Sea Walkway for an extension to The Long Pathway finishing at the South Coast.

The City to Sea Walkway starts in the heart of central Wellington near Parliament and ends at the south coast, 12 kilometres away in Island Bay. Along the way, you will visit the Botanic Garden and historic cemeteries, see several observatories, such as the famous Cielo Car, Victoria University and a plant nursery, walk through part of Aro Valley with turn-of-the-century cottages, 14 parks and reserves, several children’s play areas, a public golf course, along bushy Town Belt tracks, expose ridges and tops through natural and exotic vegetation.

You will get spectacular views of central Wellington, the southern suburbs of Newtown, Berhampore and Island Bay. Government House, historic Enskike Creek, the Brooklyn wind turbine, Mount Victoria, Mount Kaukau and Cook Strait, the Kaikoura ranges. You will get spectacular views of central Wellington, the southern suburbs of Newtown, Berhampore and Island Bay. Government House, historic Enskike Creek, the Brooklyn wind turbine, Mount Victoria, Mount Kaukau and Cook Strait, the Kaikoura ranges. You will get spectacular views of central Wellington, the southern suburbs of Newtown, Berhampore and Island Bay. Government House, historic Enskike Creek, the Brooklyn wind turbine, Mount Victoria, Mount Kaukau and Cook Strait, the Kaikoura ranges. You will get spectacular views of central Wellington, the southern suburbs of Newtown, Berhampore and Island Bay. Government House, historic Enskike Creek, the Brooklyn wind turbine, Mount Victoria, Mount Kaukau and Cook Strait, the Kaikoura ranges. You will get spectacular views of central Wellington, the southern suburbs of Newtown, Berhampore and Island Bay. Government House, historic Enskike Creek, the Brooklyn wind turbine, Mount Victoria, Mount Kaukau and Cook Strait, the Kaikoura ranges.

The walk takes about six to seven hours but can be done in stages. The route is described here from the city to sea but may be walked in either direction. The walk takes about six to seven hours but can be done in stages. The route is described here from the city to sea but may be walked in either direction. The walk takes about six to seven hours but can be done in stages. The route is described here from the city to sea but may be walked in either direction. The walk takes about six to seven hours but can be done in stages.
At the two point in the ridge you are above an underground military built by Greater Wellington Regional Council. Greenhouses in 1952, it hosts to mid-century tons of water from Wainuiomata and surrounding Wairarapa, Island Bay, Berhampore, Miramar and Seaview and parts of the central city.

Around the park, and each side up the upper level of Wellington Park before crossing Strand Road to the northeast end. Once off the point and west, a road now leads through shrubs and coast to Martin Place. Turn right onto Martin Place, and west Wellington City Council’s Berhampore Remedy.

Spotted in 1865, it is in the centre of the City’s garden plantings, formal plant collections and lawn areas. Garden passes through the unique native forest remnants, pine plantations, formal plant collections and lawn areas.

There's lots of ways you can help restore the city's reserves, or to special or to take an active part in creating a greener future. Visit our website www.feelinggreat.co.nz for details.

No Fires
No Litter
No Smoking
No Picnics
No Camping

Mountain Bikes to give way to pedestrians. Unless marked, tracks are open to mountain bikers.

The walkway passes through the semi-natural vegetation of Botanical Garden comprising native, exotic and native trees, and flowers and offers an interpreted tour through some of the most important aspects of New Zealand's flora and fauna.

At the two point in the ridge you are above an underground military built by Greater Wellington Regional Council. Greenhouses in 1952, it hosts to mid-century tons of water from Wainuiomata and surrounding Wairarapa, Island Bay, Berhampore, Miramar and Seaview and parts of the central city.

Around the park, and each side up the upper level of Wellington Park before crossing Strand Road to the northeast end. Once off the point and west, a road now leads through shrubs and coast to Martin Place. Turn right onto Martin Place, and west Wellington City Council’s Berhampore Remedy.

Spotted in 1865, it is in the centre of the City’s garden plantings, formal plant collections and lawn areas. Garden passes through the unique native forest remnants, pine plantations, formal plant collections and lawn areas.

There's lots of ways you can help restore the city's reserves, or to special or to take an active part in creating a greener future. Visit our website www.feelinggreat.co.nz for details.

No Fires
No Litter
No Smoking
No Picnics
No Camping

Mountain Bikes to give way to pedestrians. Unless marked, tracks are open to mountain bikers.

The walkway passes through the semi-natural vegetation of Botanical Garden comprising native, exotic and native trees, and flowers and offers an interpreted tour through some of the most important aspects of New Zealand's flora and fauna.