EXPLORE WELLINGTON
Discover Wellington's Town Belt, reserves and walkways.

EXPLORE
Te Kopahou Reserve has important conservation values and is a unique Wellington asset. Within the 500 ha reserve you will find a variety of walking and mountain biking tracks, popular diving,cdiving, and birdwatching areas, and 5km of coastline, most of which is administered by Wellington City Council. For more information on other walking tracks and mountain bike tracks visit the Feeding Great website at www.feedinggreat.co.nz.

HOW TO GET THERE

OCEANVIEW DAY ENTRANCE
The petrol station and vehicle entrance to the start of the Oceanview Track is at the end of Oceanview Road which is off Oceanview Avenue. The road beyond the petrol station is not suitable for cars or white vans. The facility to access the Oceanview Track is on the other side of the petrol station.

Public Transport: Wellington
Take the No. 114 from the Dominion Square and down the Civic Centre to the Oceanview Road. This vehicle is too large to travel on the narrow road and there is no parking or access to the track.

TE KOPAHOU RESERVE, WRIGHTS HILL and THE KAROHI WILDLIFE SANCTUARY

Absolutely Positively Wellington City Council
Mrs Helen R. P. W. Kidston

TRACKS AND WALKS

The Coastal Track
This walk takes around 1.5 hours. The track is well graded with stairs and some sections are steep. It can be wet underfoot in wet conditions. It starts at the end of Oceanview Road.

The Coastal Track follows the coastline from Oceanview Road, past the Oceanview Bay Quay and Red Rock Promenade. Beach access, bicycle parks and amenities are available along the route. The track is well graded and suitable for most people.

The track is part of the longer Coastal Walkway which is a network of walkways along the coastline. It is a great way to explore the coastline and enjoy the views.

The Coastal Track is accessed from the end of Oceanview Road. The track is well graded and suitable for most people. It is a great way to explore the coastline and enjoy the views.

The Coastal Track is part of the longer Coastal Walkway which is a network of walkways along the coastline. It is a great way to explore the coastline and enjoy the views.