1	5/05/2006		H	Wiseman-Dare	27 Sydenham St	Northland	Wellington	475 9251		1							1	I would like to see NO structures whatsoever OR plantings on the seaward side of the road as they will obscure the view. Plantings have the potential to grow too high and obscure the view eg: as at Lyall Bay. The sections should be retained in public ownership.
2	6/05/2006		Marie	O'Connor	94 Owhiro Bay Parade	Owhiro Bay	Wellington	383 6490	gingaoc@infogen.net.nz	1				1				The council should make the sections residential and then sell them. I would like a small footbridge over the stream so I don't always get my feet wet.
3	7/05/2006		Alan	Geeves	38 Bracken Road	Newlands	Wellington	938 6074	alan.geeves@xtra.co.nz			1		1				I am a member of 2 4wd clubs in the region and as such visit this area about 6 to 10 times a year. Also I walk around here 3 to 4 times a year. My biggest requirement of this upgrade would be continued access under much the same conditions as present which I believe going to be the case in these proposals. On a whole these proposals will make a valuable improvement to this area and increase its use by many recreational groups. Re the 2 sections I am always concerned when public land is sold off however in this case it might be the best idea. It is unlikely that more than 50 parks will be required. If these are sold they should be rezoned residential if they are retained my view would be to replant them as a coastal garden rather than extra carparking that is unlikely to be needed. Re the dam in Hape stream. This is a semi historic feature but it is in such a derelict state that it would be uneconomic to restore and would serve no useful function if it was restored. Returning this stream to as close to its natural state as possible would be the preferred option. Most people that visit this area don't know that this even e
4	7/05/2006		Kerry	Matthews	158 Owhiro Bay Parade	Owhiro Bay	Wellington	462 5394	powhiro@paradise.net.nz	1				1				1. Consultation: Thankyou for the opportunity and the professional manner of its approach plus the good, comprehensive info. Well done Council officers. 2. The two sections: I rescind the view previously expressed on behalf of the OB Residents Assn - I don't think their sale is a good idea despite the revenue. The site is better for the extra carpark flexibility/resource area and the blue penguins habitat. 3. Hape Stream: Yes remove dam. 4. No rubbish bins: Get real! Provide rubbish bins. 5. Cycle track: Despite a personal aversion to cycling, I think that there should be "uninterrupted pedestrian/cycle paths" on the seaside all around the bays. Vehicles must not be permitted to obstruct. 6. New shelter: Fine/good idea, should be multi-purpose facility. Time the old shed went. 7. Blue penguins: Please note that blue penguins commonly nest behind the old building along the bank/sometimes killed by unleashed dogs. They are shy. 8. Dust nuisance: Please note that it is 6 years since the WCC took over & the excessive dust nuisance in high winds persists, even exacerbated by WCC dumped dirt. Expect more WRC
5	8/05/2006		Richard	Brandon	27 Connaught Tce	Brooklyn	Wellington			1				1				While I would prefer the property to remain in public ownership, I understand that the sale could reap reasonable proceeds for the Council. As such I can see that that the Council may prefer the sale option. If the sale does proceed, I think it would be preferable for land covenants to be placed on the land as suggested in the brochure. I note that one of the sections has a much wider road frontage than the other. Would the purchaser of the larger section be able to subdivide? If so, perhaps a limit on the number of dwellings that can be erected should be considered. Either way, for both sections I think a 8 - 12m height limit or thereabouts would be appropriate. I agree with the other proposed limits, on what part of the land can be developed. I note that it is intended that no rubbish bins be placed in the area. In a recreation area such as this I would have thought it would be appropriate to have rubbish bins.

6	8/05/2006		Sylvia	Witt	58 Happy Valley Road	Owhiro Bay	Wellington	383 5829	sylvia@witt.net		1					1		I like the proposals. Good security at night and weekends is necessary. Also good lighting. At present too many 'hoons' and boy racers.
7	8/05/2006		T	Campbell	36 - 8 Leeds Street	Te Aro	Wellington					1				1		If the land is sold it would be good to see a cafe or similar built rather than just houses.
8	9/05/2006		Karl	Woodhead	18 Jackson Street	Island Bay	Wellington	383 6658	karl.woodhead@paradise.net.nz	1						1		I think the proposal looks great. I also favour selling the sections as it will help offset the cost of the new facilities and will provide further accomodation for people wanting to live in a great area.

This part of South Coast is unique, wild and mostly uninhabited.it should stay this way

17	16/05/2006		Ian	Apperley	147 Townsend Road	Seatoun Heights	Wellington	388 1999	iapperley@paradise.net.nz	1						1		One of the things that I'd like to see is less public access to vehicles beyond the carpark. Weekends are now dangerous for foot traffic with motorbikes and speeding 4WD, not to mention the noise and damage to the general area. Here we are trying to promote a tourist area and it's being turned into a race track. Someone needs to do something about it before there is an accident.
18	17/05/2006		Gerard	Bellam	86b Volga st	Island Bay	Wellington	934 8317	bellam@metsevice.com	1				1				Sell the sections as this would help with security in the upgraded visitor area, once people living in new homes there. Native plants at entrance have been stolen in recent years!. Sell the sections to keep council debt down also, the entrance area is large enough without sections. How about an area for a small bike hire facility, as the Eastbourne coast road has had a useful operation running at weekends for years. Could be part of the new visitor building. New building is well thought out, small, tucked away. The old building is redundant, with no architectural merit.
19	18/05/2006		Jo	Thapa	1A Volga street	Island Bay	Wellington				1			1				I hate the way this council is intent on selling our public spaces for private development. Wellingtonians are blessed to have so much wild space around them, but if Kerry gets her way we will be like Singapore. The sea side of coastal roads should NOT be developed any further.

20	19/05/2006	Mr	Tara	Ross-Watt	2A Murchison Street	Island Bay	Wellington		Tara.Ross-Watt@maritimenz.govt.nz		1						1	I would like to add my support for the community initiative to block the sale of any public land at the former quarry site in Owhiro Bay. This area is extremely popular with residents and visitors alike, and we would all like to see it stay in public hands. We witnessed much misrepresentation during the previous council meetings, which gave everyone the undeniable feeling that private agendas were at work to sell of this prime coastal asset. It is imperative that any future use is for the benefit of all, not just a couple of property developers and the eventual wealthy owners. The stretch of coast to the west is spectacular, and the quarry should be redeveloped to provide an entrance befitting the landscape. This is already an asset to the region, but could be even more significant with the right development and landscaping. One thing is for sure, selling parts off into private hands will not benefit the community. I have yet to encounter any local resident who supports the sale, we are unanimously opposed to the council divesting itself of any part our our public coastal land.
21	19/05/2006		Philip	Nelson	35 Cuba St	Petone	Lower Hutt	938 2562	phil.nelson@vuw.ac.nz		1			1				I think the council should supply plenty of litterbins - it's just wishful & unrealistic to expect the public to remove their own litter. Other than National Parks, where else has not supplying rubbish bins worked?

I am really concerned that as part of this process the public was not advised that this land was in fact rural zoned land- NOT land set aside for residential development. I think this is a hugely material fact when considering this issue. If following this consultation process council officers recommend that this land be sold then as the adjacent land owner I think it important that I have an opportunity to meet with the WCC CEO relating to a written assurance I have received from a former council officer. Could you please ensure that as soon as the report is available a copy is emailed to both "twose@willisbond.co.nz" and "roger.twose@slingshot.co.nz"

37	22/05/2006		Lynda	Griggs	25 Robertson St	Owhiro Bay	Wellington	383 8889	l.griggs@niwa.co.nz		1						1	This is my submission on the future of the public land at the end of Owhiro Bay Parade on Wellington's South Coast. I understand that the City Council is considering selling part of this land (1,772 square metres) for private housing development. Wellington's best assets are the town belt and the South Coast. I believe that the South Coast should be given the same status as the town belt and protected against sale or any kind of commercial development. These areas are an important part of the character of Wellington and must be retained. Once lost, we can never get them back. I ask: Please keep ALL of this public land in public ownership as a reserve, for future generations to enjoy. Please don't sell off any of the land into private hands.
38		Mr	G	Knapman	44 Owhiro Bay Parade	Owhiro Bay	Wellington South	027 249 0813			1				1			Question 3 - should the council remove the dam structure from Hape Stream - This is a very peaceful and tranquil area, crystal clear water, being in touch with nature, lovely setting for family picnics etc.

Please don't sell off any of the land into private hands. This land is needed to form the gateway to the coast. I support upgrading the area at the end of Owhiro Bay Parade into an attractive entrance for the coastal park. Please keep all of the public land, so it can be included in the upgrade plan. I support public input into this. I ask the Council to restore the environment at the site including Hape Stream, which flows through the area past the car park. Years ago, the City Council agreed to remove the ugly dam from hape Stream. I support removing the dam to restore the Stream.

As a daily user of the site, I notice three aspects of the Council's proposed upgrade that I believe require more thought: 1) absence of rubbish bins 2) untenanted public shelter 3) chip sealed car park 1) "leave only footprints" is wasted upon Owhiro Bay's nightly beer-swilling "guests". At the very least, a large waste bin (with a secured top lock) could allow some of us regulars the chance to clear away their bottles, condoms and gas canisters from the parking lot and beach below. Moreover, a doggy bin positioned beyond the proposed turn around area, might deter half-hearted dog owners from leaving poop-filled plastic bags on the trail. 2) Yes, "houses built on the sections would effectively make the car park area less isolated", but wouldn't a full-time tenanted structure be even more effective? Currently, the Owhiro site is at nighttime - save the occasional miscreant and amorously determined couple - completely (and some might argue, dangerously) empty. Dive shop? Bike rental? Caf

47	23/05/2006		Barbara	Hoskins	3 Valley Street	Island Bay	Wellington	383 8847			1					1		I wish to support the retention of the public coastal land at the end of the Owhiro Bay Parade. This land should not be sold but should be kept as a part of the new coastal reserve. It is the responsibility of this generation to keep these public lands for our children and our grandchildren. I support the idea of the proposed upgrading of the flat land at the end of the road into an appropriate entrance area for the coastal reserve - this wild South Coast of ours needs to be protected and enhanced for future generations. I also support the idea of a realistically sized and appropriate Visitors' Centre, with facilities for the growing number of visitors to the South Coast.

As for the car park tarsealing as much as possible must be considered, so as to stop all the boy races constantly wheel spinning and combined with the natural winds creating dusty wind storms which have the strength to pick up the loose gravel and break vehicle windows as it has done several times past. One last request would be the use of steep judder bars prior to the existing entrance as it seems when leaving the quarry trying to break the land speed record before the first corner of Owhiro bay is a must.

It was exciting and scary to a small child. No road from then on to red rocks or further. The Quarry owners left the whole coast along passed red rocks in a deplorable state. I would like to see restoration that

I would like to see the existing building retained and used for a cafe/restaurant. Brilliant location with views to the south island and the harbour mouth. There is significant demand for such facilities on the south coast. Sun sets in summer, open fire and a glass of wine in the winter. It would be great. Council should sell the sections by tender to raise funds - why not. They are valuable and it would not detract from the overall plan - there is heaps of land.

The dam has been broken for several months now anyway and the stream makes it own way through. All that you would be doing is removing some large pieces of concrete and I can't see that there is justification for doing that. Also why are there no rubbish bins in the plans for the area. That will just mean it is either dumped or brought 50 metres down the road to the council rubbish bin on Owhiro Bay Parade.

I will illustrate this submission with a set of 12 slides from my laptop. ARTIFACTS OF THE COAST 1. There are many reminders of human activity long the coast, reminding us of the efforts of past generations. The slides are of a concrete pad from mining of the Red Rocks in 1908 (brought to my attention by Jim Brodie, see article in journal of Karori Historical Society), and the wartime radar station on Sinclair Head. These should be protected and their stories told. YEARS OF QUARRY ACTIVITIES 2. Aggregate was taken from the beach from 1905 by the Tonks family. (The 1910 slide of horses and drays, shows the runaround and the original hillside in the background.) This was a tough job, important for the building of Wellington. During the Second World War, provisions were taken to the Sinclair Head observation post and radar station by horse and tray, and soldiers were most appreciative of "Tonks' taxi". 3. Towards the end of the 20th century, the mining operation was massive. (The slide is of the crushing plant.) Much of the hillside was cut away, providing a graphic illustration of the rock strata (slide)

Two points though: The two sections the WCC propose selling are public land and should remain so. Where else in Wellington is public land sold to help finance a project? It is short sighted not to have rubbish bins. Many people are not careful enough to take rubbish away with them. At present rubbish pick up is provided from public rubbish bins in Owiro Bay. It is but a short distance further to the proposed development.

I have also seen the various mechanisms of the dam being operated. I also remember being on the horse/dray taking supplies to soldiers based at Sinclair Head in World War II. The firm of Tonks and Andrews started quarry operations at Owhiro Bay in 1910. The crushing plant and gravel storage/loading bins were on the site of the present building where it is proposed to build the shelter and toilets. Photos taken in 1910 show the old crushing plant, horses and drays on the beach and a track leading down from the crusher site to Hape Stream. The retaining wall still remains. There are no records to my knowledge of when the dam in Hape stream was built. As the water from the dam played a very important role in washing the shingle from salt and other impurities I think the dam would have been built early in the operations. Probably before 1920. As the brochure says the site is "harsh, exposed and wild". Retaining the dam would be a monument to the men who worked in these

Second I would like to commend the design quality of the proposed improvements that is much better than the previous attempt. This is particularly so for the structure that will be built to replace the existing Quarry Building, a practical and usable structure that will provide both shelter from and interpretation of Wellington's Wild South Coast. I have counted over 50 cars in the car park several times over weekends. All of those times were in the summer, and on a good weekend in the winter when the seals are present I would expect even more cars than that. It seems to me that every year the area gets more and more popular (I have lived here for nearly 25 years) and it would be silly not to plan for even greater use of the carpark. Some Saturdays I have seen as many as 8 trailers (carrying trail and quad bikes) in the car park. The council is probably not that keen on these users but they do exist and should be catered for with parks that can accommodate their trailers. Could Hape Stream be rehabilitated without moving the dam? As it has been there so long, will it do more damage to the stream's fauna, flora and surroundings by being removed? One suggestion for the lower stream is to bridge it for pedestrians...I have seen disabled people, parents of young children and even people who just don't want wet feet! struggle with it at times. If Council think building is appropriate on these sections I suggest they consider building one or two environmentally sympathetic eco-cottages to be made available for Artist residencies. The power of the natural environment in this area is stunning and would provide a brilliant stimulus to visual artists, composers, writers etc. I strongly support Council's declared aim to create a pedestrian friendly environment at the Bay entrance. However, I ask that you ensure that provision for pedestrians and cyclists is generous rather than barely adequate - the standard adopted by Council for the remainder of the south coast. I also ask that you take the opportunity to review the question of car access beyond the Hape Stream. Currently car access is allowed every day except Sunday. Cars and motorbikes dramatically alter the experience of both pedestrians and cyclists using this coast and create

The area is a mess and since the quarry closed of no real use. As the quarry is not likely to re-open then some alternative constructive use or upgrade is needed. Some form of public facility/rest room/etc is desirable, BUT rather than "go it alone" use this waste-land in conjunction with building that so called "marine education facility" which the council is determined to build at Arthurs Nose at the south-west corner of Lyall Bay. That spot is NOT suitable and I have voiced my objection. I know the council has engaged in clandestine clean-up/upgrade operations round Arthurs Nose, but that was a job that was needed even if not to quite such a standard, a standard which was obviously aimed at the marine facility going there. Combine this marine thing and an "entrance" to the coastal walk recreation area and you will for once start to make some sense. You have the room there for both . A combined facility has obvious advantages and substantial cost savings. It will also be a greater attraction to visitors than bits scattered round the pla

The proposed shelter will provide a much needed focal point for visitors to the South Coast, which has previously been unavailable. We also support the educational/interpretive component of the upgrade as we believe this will greatly enhance the quality of the visitor experience on the South Coast. Positively Wellington Tourism supports the visitor-friendly focus of the proposal, with its provision of picnic/gathering areas, as well as suitable parking areas for buses and campervans for visitors to Wellington. There is a recognisable shortage of these visitor amenities in Wellington and Positively Wellington Tourism applauds these provisions. We also support the enhancement of the natural character of the South Coast through the restoration of the Te Kopahou Reserve. Education through tourism is an intelligent approach and we believe the environmental education component of the area will add significantly to the value of the visitor experience.

We Support the Council plan to remove the dam structure from Hape Stream. We have a vision of this facility as being much more than a shelter from the elements. In Wellington's wonderful winter southerlies, it is a great thing to be able to sit in one's car and be able to have clear, uninterrupted views to the sea, coast and beyond. Almost all of other such parking areas 'upgraded' result in people actually being closed off from these views, leaving the red rocks entrance as one of the only remaining areas not 'manicured' to the standardised, restrictive formula. (I Realise that getting out of the car is possible, it's just that is limited to times that it is in fact warm enough!). We are truly fortunate that in Wellington such a resource of natural beauty is accessible to all. I would hate to see this lost or restricted in any way.

There is overwhelming support among the local community for this outcome. With the Aquarium proponents having applied a second time for resource consent, no action should be taken on Owhiro Bay (be it the sale of the sections or the development of facilities) at the moment, as Owhiro Bay might well be involved in a compromise site - noting it is preferred to Raekaihau by many. It would be unreasonable for WCC to prejudice that possibility by taking any action now. It would be unacceptable for any enhancement of the natural values of the area or provision for their quiet appreciation and enjoyment to be made dependent on the sale of the sections to provide funds. Although there is a link between asset sales, rates, and funding projects, there should not be any relationship so tightly bound as that. If there is any sale the bush on the slopes must be protected permanently by some legally binding (on new and any future owner(s)) contract - covenant or whatever will achieve that.

A full historical plan should be developed prior to doing anything such as removing the dam structure. The present buildings should also be retained until a full historical assessment of the area is carried out. At the moment the council is essence wiping the land clean and will regret this in the long run. The council should also stop all recreation motorised vehicles travelling around the bays. These vehicles are absolutely destroying this area. This should be seen as the main priority for the area.

One that has an education focus - rather than a commercial focus. This is the area of the south coast with the biggest poaching problem, and perhaps their presence would deter it. The seals are already there, and a walking track could be made all the way to Makara, with cabins for hikers to stay in along the way. After viewing the consultation documents supplied by Council it is clear that Wellington City Council is again imposing its own strategy on the city communities, leaving the Wellington communities powerless and without any opportunity of genuine involvement. Page 5 of the report 4 dated 22.9.05 to Strategy and Policy Committee about the Upgrade of the Quarry Carpark has an illustration graph of the communities' ideas for uses of the quarry building. Café/Kiosk is what is documented in the report having the most support at 58% of submitters. However when one looks at the consultation, only one submitters even mentions a KIOSK and is suggested to be established as well as retaining the quarry building for the MEC Trust's marine centre proposal, but not instead of the building itself. The rest of those 58 submitters wanted the building retained, many of them wanting the MEC Trust's proposal established at the site in conjunction with an information centre. The Council has once again taken community feedback and changed it to suit its own purpose, not the way the community intended it. The consultation f

I applaud the pedestrian friendly focus of the proposal with regards to the structured limiting of vehicular access at the site. However I do not believe the proposed restriction of vehicle access goes far enough. Reference is made in the proposal that "it is important to enhance the natural wild coastal character of the site". I would strongly argue that enhancement through prevention is more responsible than enhancement through cure. To this end I support the permanent closure of the Hape Stream gate with access restricted to authorised vehicles only. The impetus behind this is supported throughout the District Plan and is central to the preservation and regeneration component of the Owhiro Bay upgrade proposal. It is acknowledged in the District Plan that the urban encroachment into the ru

The decision to sell was made in October 2002 and ratified by the council in September 2005 and appears unlikely to be changed following any belated consultation process. Rather I make this submission in order to create a public record of how this precedent, which has far-reaching ramifications, has been set by a council and its officers treating the public with contempt. I am aware of no other occasion in the council's history that it has sold a parcel of land to finance the refurbishment of the part that remains publicly owned. Recent upgrades, including those made to Glover Park, Oriental Bay and Karori Park, required no adjacent land sales to fund them. A precedent such as this can be cited in future to sell of land to finance an upgrade of an area. I note that the council has signalled its intention to sell off part of Cobham Park in order to build an indoor sports arena. So the new unannounced council policy appears to be to sell a small section of land to fund upgradin

We have noticed more and more people visiting and using the carpark area over the years. Last Sunday existing park area was filling up although parking styles are sometimes haphazard. The proposed site for the gathering and picnic area seems to be the coldest and dampest and most unwelcoming area of the current site as always damp and in the shelter of the hill. I would have thought a picnic area or multiple areas on the seaward side of the parking would be much more attractive to use as drier and generally warmer even though slightly more exposed. In the longer term personal preference would be for less vehicle access past this point.

It took many years of public action to have this land purchased from the quarry operators so that Wellington's South Coast could be environmentally restored. Upgrading the entrance to improve the approach is highly desirable, but it is a spurious argument (as put forward during the earlier Council discussion on the sale of these sections) to say that the sale is necessary to pay for the upgrade. This has not been a requirement for upgrades of public amenities in other parts of Wellington. Publicly-owned land should be retained for public use and enjoyment. In this case the plan given on your website clearly shows that building private houses on the two sections will crowd in on the proposed shelter instead of having it set in a spaciousness which reflects the atmosphere of the South coast.

Please don't sell off any of the land into private hands. We support upgrading the area at the end of Owhiro Bay Parade into an attractive entrance for the coastal park. Please keep all of the public land, so it can be included in the upgrade plan. We believe that more planted areas are needed - not the few areas shown in the plan. There may also be not enough car parks to meet future demands. This means the land should not be sold. We ask the Council to restore the environment at the site including Hape Stream, which flows through the area past the car park. Years ago, the City Council agreed to remove the ugly dam from hape Stream. We support removing the dam to restore the Stream. We asked for this to be done publicly back in 1994. The dam is silted up and an ugly eyesore. Parts of the dam could be reatined at the park entrance as relics if people wanted this.

I think the parking lot area is made for cars and not people. Like most residents, we walk to the quarry on a regular basis, and always find it difficult to navigate the parkinglot/traffic. The entrance of the new design does not welcome walkers or children. It is made for cars. While there are patches of grass and beach, there is actually very little good land - landscaped land of one sort or another - available on the coast to have a picnic. (I know there is a picnic table, but I don't want to have to look across a parking lot) It would be nice if the entrance welcomed walkers + children (the locals) by having a bit of green space and a couple of benches away from car traffic near the entrance to the area. Remember that many people (in cars and on foot) go to that parking lot as a destination. They arrive and look around, have a stretch, eat their fish and chips etc and leave. Most don't go into the reserve itself. So lets make the entrance inviting and make a space for people to stop and reflect on the beauty of the area. I sugges that when

The Association unanimously believes it is essential to retain all of the Council land at this site in public ownership. The number of car parks in the design may not accommodate future visitor growth, and the planted areas are not as big as had always been hoped for when the community campaigned for a reserve at this site. The land should be retained so that the enhancement can (now in the future) allow for more car parks and planted areas. We would like to work with the Council regarding the future of this site, and hope that the controversial sale proposal will be abandoned.

Few cities have such a "wild" coast, so close to a big population centre. Because of this, we believe that it is vitally important that the Coast be restored and protected. The WCC Long Term Council Community Plan (2006/7 to 2015/16) contains various Long Term Outcomes relevant to this. Examples are: "monitoring and enhancing the ecological functions of the green open space network"; "protect and restore its land and water-based ecosystems to sustain their natural processes"; "pest animals and plants will be eliminated as methods become available and no new pests will become established." Specific items we would like to see planned and budgeted for are: elimination of pest animals and plants; appropriate locally sourced native plant revegetation, commencing as soon as possible; fencing of rare or threatened plant communities, where necessary; control of leachate and other pollutants to the South Coast; planting of streamsides to control erosion. We REQUEST that all management and planning initiatives for this Owhiro entrance to the South Coast make real progress towards these

There has been very little investment in our suburb, and keeping this land means that we will have the option of creating a space for our neighbourhood and also for those who love the coast. As the city continues to urbanize, space like this will become absolutely priceless. Also, we take our children there and find the area not to be very safe for children. We really have to watch the wee ones around the cars. Please make a space for us to rest and relax along the coast without having to look at or be too close to the cars.

Re sections of no.s 178 & 180 Owhiro Bay Parade, I recommend they be cleared of weeds, and revegetated with eco-sourced, appropriate Cook Strait Ecological District plants, eg Phormium cookianum, Ozothamnus leptophyllus and Olearia solandri. This will enhance the gateway to the wild south coast / Te Kophou Reserve etc. 2. I support Wellington Botanical Society's submission dated 28/10/2004. 3. Barriers should be built to ensure that trail bikes, quads etc cannot bypass the gate when it is locked.4. Motor vehicle speed limit and noise
