Makara/Ohariu Community Board Meeting – Thursday June 13 7.00 pm – Makara Hall

Chair's Report

1. Assisting Makara School with Makara's Got Talent event (4 July) plus fund raising for moving old school building to the existing School. The school recently hosted a full Penthouse theatre(167), Brooklyn to view the Elton John movie to fundraise. ✓
2. Assisting Chris Moore (WREMO) with Community Response Plans for Makara (Wed. 29 ~~May~~ <sup>June</sup>) and Ohariu (Wed. 5 July) Attended both meetings, well received by residents and active participation by those who came. Chris Moore to complete both Plans and forward to me for sending to residents. ✓
3. Spoke to driver of large truck who has been working taking rocks down South Makara Road for pipeline work, after request from resident as to when they would be finished as she was concerned regarding number and speed down narrow road. He advised that last load went down yesterday, and now the digger will be brought out to complete work. ✓
4. Flooring now completed in historic cottage alongside St Patrick's Church, Makara. Work now to be done for suitable decoration, and curation of historic items relating to Makara area and residents going back to the mid 1800's. ✓
5. Beach residents were not in agreement with putting speed restrictions/humps in place at the beach. Possibly some signage to be arranged. ✓
6. A request for some signs about horses on Makara and South Makara Roads has been asked for. Steve has been advised regarding these. ✓
