MONTHLY REPORTING TO WELLINGTON CITY COUNCIL

Snapshot of activities by Tawa Community Patrol during July 2016:

- 1,108 kms travelled in July (566 in July 2015).
- 116 patrollers hours in July (75 hours in July 2015).
- The increase in kms is because the patrol has instigated double shifts if patrollers are interested. We have also being asked to patrol in areas outside Tawa at the request of Police or other Wellington Community Patrols.
- The patrollers came across a person changing a tyre and stayed and assisted as the area the person had pulled up in was not an ideal location to carry this out.
- The patrollers came across a young youth skateboarding on the road late at night. Patrollers stopped and talked to the youth and advised him that he was invisible on the road so the youth moved to the footpath and carried on skateboarding.
- Patrollers came across a homeless person sleeping in the porch of a retail shop on the Main Road of Tawa.
- Following a recent burglary in the area which was publicised in the media, patrollers put focus on that area when they were planning their patrol.
- Total administration hours for July was 60.
- Total training hours for July was 3.

Snapshot of activities by Tawa Community Patrol during June 2016:

- 639 kms travelled in June (554 in June 2015).
- 84 patrollers hours in June (123 hours in June 2015).
- The patrol has started a late shift on a Saturday night concluding at 3am. This is available to those patrollers who wish to patrol these hours.
- Two patrollers attended CPNZ National Training Seminar 2016 held in Christchurch the weekend 24-26 June 2016.
- Patrollers came across several incidents where they used the FIXIT app and reported incidents to the Wellington City Council. This included graffiti, street lights out, dumped rubbish and a barricade removed from the end of a culdesac.
- Patrollers came across two members of the public and offered them a ride home in Tawa when one of them had hurt her foot.
- Patrollers came across a member of the public who was trying to access the rest room facilities late at night and both the Grassless Reserve toilets and the public toilets by the Tawa Library were locked. Patrollers took the person into the Community Centre so they could use the facilities there.
- There was one boy racer convoy during June that the patrol came across while out on patrol.
- Total administration hours for June was 44.
- Total training hours for June was 60.
